Biographical Sketch: The Marquette Geologists Association was founded in Chicago in 1937, and became affiliated with the Chicago Academy of Sciences in 1939. The members of the Marquette Geologists Association would meet on the first Saturday of every month. The Marquette Geologists Association was organized for the purpose of bringing together people who were interested in the study of Geology, as well as the study of Gemology, Paleontology, and Mineralogy. The members also hoped to be of service to museums and schools within the Chicago area. It is unclear when the Marquette Geologists Association disbanded.
